

DRIVERS' HOURS TRAINING

INTRODUCTION

Infringements of the drivers' hours rules is one of the most common reasons for further investigation and prosecution by the DVSA . Compliance with these rules and regulations is critical to your business. Chartwise UK began life in 1985 as a tachograph analysis bureau and has advised on issues relating to Drivers' Hours ever since.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

All drivers, supervisors, managers and admin staff who are involved in the management of tachograph charts or data, the planning of shifts for drivers who must comply with the EU Drivers' hours rules and the drivers themselves.

COURSE CONTENT

- Legislation on EU drivers' hours in plain English
- Legislation on domestic regulations in plain English
- Working Time Directive in plain English
- Recording other work (Manual entries)
- Employers Responsibilities
- Drivers' Responsibilities
- Fines and Penalties
- Question & Answer

NUMBER OF DELEGATES

Maximum of delegates

20

DURATION

½ a day

CERTIFICATION / QUALIFICATION

Each delegate receives a certificate of attendance

LOCATION

This course can be delivered in our Team Valley Training Centre, at your premises or at an agreed suitable location.

PRICE ON APPLICATION

Prices includes all course notes

